NEW YORK (A. L.). 8: WASHINGTON, 2. The seventh victory of the New York Americans and the twelfth straight defeat of the Washingtons, interdependent happenings at American League Park yesterday, were accompanied by good playing on the part of the New Yorks and playing by the Washingtons so bad it bordered on the bizarre. On Monday the Washingtons could not bat: yesterday they could not field. They made errors sion: twice they made errors in couplets, and their playing, while distressing to lovers of scientific ball, was sufficiently ludiorous to arouse the risibilities. The sensational comedy troupe had to laugh themselves

There was enough strenuousness, however to lame a couple of the New Yorks. Conroy burt his leg sliding to the plate in the first inning. His place was ably filled by Bob Unglaub. Elberfeld turned up lame because burt his leg sliding to the plate in the first inning. His place was ably filled by Bob Unglaub. Elberfeld turned up lame because of the reappearance of "charleyhorse." He played a great fielding game, nevertheless, and hit well. His two-bagger in the eighth inning would have been a triple at the least, if he had been able to run instead of hobble. The New Yorks did their batting at the right time, while Powell, though hit freely and often in jeopardy as to balls, kept the thumps of the tailenders scattered.

Thoney outfooted an infield hit in the first inning which led up to a swift double play by the New Yorks. Cassidy hit in front of the plate, and McGuire threw him out at first. Thoney, a sprinter from 'way back, never slackened speed at second, but hustled for third. Ganzel made a splendid throw across the diamond and caught Thoney. With two out in the second inning Coughlin was seized with aft of daring and tried to steal home. He was out, but fault was found with the umpire's decision by some onlookers, who, however, had no objection to make when Corroy was called out on the same kind of a play in the first inning.

Ganzel was hit by a pitched ball in the second inning and stole second. Cassidy had an awful time with Powell's fly, Ganzel scoring and Powell scoring soon afterward on Cassidy's fumble of Unglaub's single. Files were just as good as hits in the third inning. Elberfeld was safe on Coughlin's nuff. Williams doubled to centre, and Anderson's fly to centre scored Elberfeld fanzel sent a line fly to Selbach, on which will made sooned. McGuire put a single in right, and Powell gave Thoney a high fly. Powell reached second and McGuire third on Thoney's muff. Then in fielding the ball in Thoney threw over Coughlin's head higher than Trinity Church steeple, and McGuire scored. Unglaub sent Powell in with a single, and Luglaub could have walked in on Fultz's double, but was held at third by the coacher. The Washington's crowning bit of unintended humor came in the sixth inning. With Fultz on second an

BoSTON, May 3.—It was humble pie that McGraw had to eat this afternoon when he saw his pets get a coat of whitewash by a team that he figured were second raters.

The trouble the visitors met with was due to splendid pitching by Wilhelm and a great exhibition of fisking by the men behind him. Milligan twired good ball for his club, but received the very poorest kind of support, there being no less than six errors charged up against the visitors. Gilbert made three of them, one being excusable, perhaps, when he muffed a high fly because of the sun in his eyes. McGraw was so disquisted with the work of his second baseman that he benched him in the seventh and sent Bresnahan to take his place.

Devlin made a square muff of an easy foul fly from Geier's bat in the sixth, and McGann fumbled a slow grounder in the first. Warner, too, was guilty of poor work when he snapped the ball over McGann's head in the third inning in an effort to catch Tenney off the bag. Delehanty was the only one of the locals to make a misplay. He made a beautiful pick-up of a hard grounder in the fifth and then threw high to Raymer at second in an effort to cut off McCormick.

Boston got a run in the third, Tenny was hit and went to second when Warner threw high to McGann, scoring on Cooley's double. In the fourth, Raymer led off with a hit and stole second. Moran and Wilhelm flied out, but Geier drove the ball to left for two bags, scoring Raymer. Tenney followed with a double to right, scoring Geier. In the eighth inning, Moran drove the ball over the left field fence for Boston's first home run of the season. New York made a desperate effort to score in the ninth. McGann hit to Wilhelm and was out at first. Mertes got in a scratch single to right. McCormick flied to Raymer and Dahlen bunted safely. Bresnahan walked, filling the bases. Warner was appealed to by his clubmates to do the trick, but his best effort, a grounder, was handled perfectly by Raymer and Tenney. The score is the Parker of the PHILADELPHIA, May 3.—Again the Brooklyn club administered a defeat to the unfortunate Phillies. It was Cronin yesterday and Poole to-day who contributed so largely toward the ictories of the visitors. The game was well played, but it dragged along tiresomely. A wild throw by Bergen to third in the third cost a run. Two men who reached base on balls scored for Brooklyn. Lumley's two bagger in the seventh was very timely. The score:

CHICAGO, May 3.—Chicago massacred Pittsburg to-day in a wild game full of hits and odd plays. Scanlon went to pieces in the fourth inning and was removed. Lee, who followed him, proved an easy mark for the locals and was hit all over the field. Briggs pitched well and had no trouble in keeping the champions under control. Pittsburg executed a triple play in the first inning, a liner going into Bransfield's hands with the bases full and all, the runners far off the sacks. Bransfield broke all first base records by making six assists. The score:

LADY AMELIA AND JACQUIN ON EVEN TERMS AT THE WIRE.

Latter Settles Question of Supremacy by Taking the Run-off in a Gallep-Rob Roy, St. Hellane, Mary Glenn, Go Between and Masterman Also Win

The first dead heat of the season on the Eastern turf was run at Jamaica yesterday It occurred in the Williamsburg Handicap for three-year-olds at six furlongs, the judges Inding it impossible to separate E. R. Thomas's Lady Amelia and D. C. Johnson's finding Jacquin at the wire. In the run-off, twenty minutes later, Jacquin won in a gallop. It was Lady Amelia's first appearance of the year and she was made favorite at 2 to 1. She picked up 122 pounds, giving one pound to Orthodox, who carried 126 pounds, and eleven to Jacquia with 116. Orthodox ruled second in favor at 13 to 5 while Jacquin at 4 to 1, carried a $2,000 commission placed on him by his owner.

lips went to the front with Lady Amelia. The $17,500 last year, was full of running and opened up an advantage of several lengths at the quarter pole. Tim Payne, 8 to 1, was the runner up with O' Neill holding Jacquin in third place. They maintained this order to the stretch, where both Tim Payne and Jacquin began to close. Lady Amelia, was clearly short, backed up gradually and Jacquin overhauled her rapidly after drawing away from Tim Payne. In the last few kept at her with might and main. O'Neil rode for his life on Jacquin, with the result that Johnson's colt got up in time to pass the judges on even terms with the Thomas filly. The crowd, worked up to a white heat, waited for the numbers with breathless in-terest; and when the judges announced "Dead supremacy with a run-off and after a rest of twenty minutes the racers again appeared. In the new betting Jacquin ruled the choice Jacquin was the master of the situation and. won by three lengths in 1:17 3-5, the time of the dead heat being 1:13 3-5.

It was a perfect day for racing, and another crowd of 10,000 was on hand when the opening event was called. This was a selling affair at six furlongs with a field of twelve. The Oneck Stable's Rob Roy was finally the choice Young Henry, E. R. Thomas's entry, at 9 to 2. Young Henry, with 126 pounds, made the running, but Burns put up a warm finish on neck, with Gay Lothario third, two lengths

The Thomas colors were seen in front in the second event, for two-year-olds at four and a half furlongs, when St. Bellane, 4 to 5 favorite, after a sluggish performance, responded to Redfern's call and won by a length 15 to 1, who was in front to the stretch, finished third, the same distance back.

Mary Glenn, backed down to 20 to 1, got the best of a ragged start in the third race and won ridden out by three lengths from Burning Glass, 12 to 1. Clear the Arena, second choice, off poorly, finished third. Princelet, the favorite, had no speed. Go Between, 6 to 1, took the fifth race, with Namtor, 5 to 1, second and Tantalus Cup, 30 to 1, third. April Shower, the favorite, was practically left. In the handicap at a mile and seventy yards, Masterman, 4 to 1, was victorious, with Wotan, 3 to 2, and Sheriff Bell, 8 to 5, second and third, respectively. Sheriff Bell was practically left. Three favorites won and Hildebrand rode two

TERRY WEARS GLASSES NOW. Ex-Champion's Evesight Is Bad-Says the

"Pebbles" Help Him. Terry McGovern's eyes, which have been bothering him for some time, have reached that stage where the former champion is compelled to wear eyeglasses. The glasses are an aid to Terry, and he says that his sight is all the better for them. McGovern looks more like a clerk or student now. It took more like a clerk or student now. It took some time to get used to the "pebbles," as the pugilist calla them, but he is all right, and says he does not think he could get along without them.

McGovern's eyes began to trouble him about two years ago. He visited an oculist who advised him to wear glasses. McGovern put the matter off repeatedly until his sight became so impaired that at times he was unable to distinguish an object several feet from him without difficulty. McGovern says that when he fights his eyes do not bother him.

VANDERBILT CUP RACE. It Is Left for the Prize Donor to Decide

Upon Foreign Entries. Concerning the race of 200 miles for the Vanderbilt cup, Chairman Pardington of the A. A. A racing board, said yesterday that nothing has been settled concerning it. xcept that it will be held on Long Island. Vhether it will be open to foreign Whether it will be open to foreign cars or only to American machines is undecided. The conditions of the race are now in the hands of the cup donor, W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and his verdict on then will not be known until he returns from the Pacific Coast. Chariman Pardington said, however, that he has one entry. William Wallace of Boston has sent word that he will compete for the cup, no matter what the conditions or when or where the race is held.

Considerable speculation on the conditions is held.

Considerable speculation on the conditions of the race has been caused by the announcement of S. F. Edge of England that he would enter if possible. It was at first suggested to have the race open to the world, but later counsel was that if this was done the cup would probably be taken abroad after the first race and it would be nice to have the trophy kept here for a few years at least.

Columbia's sophomores were easy winners yesterday in the first of the series of games for the university championship at lacrosse defeating the freshman twelve on South Field by a score of 7 goals to 1. The score at the end of the first balf was 5 to 0 in favor of the second year team. Mackinlay, the freeh-man captain, tallied the one goal for his side just before time was called.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

IRISH LAD AND HIGHBALL WORK FINE FOR THE METROPOLITAN.

Candlemas Colt Covers a Mile in 1:41 1-2 Easily, While the Sen of Ben Strome Goes in 1:41 1-5-Other Trials at Westchester-Poor Starting at Jamaica

The running of the Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park to-morrow was about the sole topic discussed by turfmen yesterday. At the picturesque Westchester racecourse yesterday morning there were busy times. The track was in excellent shape, and the acers, young and old, that will be seen in the ing were all at work early. Shortly after 9 o'clock W. M. Sheftel's three-year-old Highball was brought out by Trainer Bud May for his final "prep" for the Metropolitan. John Bullman had come all the way from Sheepshead Bay to work the famous son of Ben Strome, and when the colt was started off over the Witchers mile a dozen watches With frictionless action, and no apparent distress, Highball negotiated the distance in 1:41 1-5, the fractions being :12 3-5, 0:24 3-5, 0:36 1-5, 0:49, 1:01 2-5, 1:15, :28 2-5 and 1:41 1-5. It was such a meritorious erformance that Trainer May was all smiles when the colt was sent back to his stall for good rub down.

Another work out that attracted attention was that of F. R. Hitchcock's Grey Friar, who was caught by several watches in 1:43 1-5. The Albemarle Stable's game and speed y mare Lux Casta, who is a sure starter in to-morrow's big race, was sent a mile in 1:44, the boy having her well in hand all the way. The Goughacres Stable's Shorthose worked the distance in 1:46, hard held. Eugenia Burch got a mile in 1:44½, pulling up in splendid shape. John E. Madden's City Bank, another candidate, covered the route in 1:45 in hand. At Sheepshead Bay yesterday H. B. Dur-yea's Irish Iad, who will probably be the favorite to-morrow, was taken out early by Trainer John W. Rogers. He had his weight up and covered a mile in 1:41½, going easily all the route. The Candlemas colt ran in heavy shoes and those who saw his work are ready to bet their lives that he will win. He will be shipped to Westchester to-day Jacob Worth's Mamie Worth worked a mile at Gravesend in 1:42, pulling up as fresh as a daisy. At Jamaica yesterday the sharps predicted that Irish Lad, Highball, Hurstourne, Lux Casta, Beldame and Ostrich will all find favor with the betting community It is not thought that E. R. Thomas's Hermis will go to the post, after all, but the stable may be represented by Buttons.

The starting at Jamaica yesterday caused much adverse comment. Mars Cassidy was as was the "walk-up" system, which has yet to be proved a success. Mary Glenn's success in the third race was practically due to the fact that she beat the gate, while the rest of the big field was hardly ready. In the fifth race Dimple, April Shower and Court Maid had no chance after the barrier was sprung. as all three were as good at left. April Shower ran fourth in such a manner that it was the opinion of those who made him favorite that with an even break he would have galloped home a winner. Again, in the last race, Sheriff Bell, favorite, was practically left, but managed to run third. Mr. Cassidy suspended Finnegan, Wood, Frasch, Red-fern and Fuller for a day each, or rather the rest of the meeting, which will be concluded this afternoon.

The Thomas-Shields combination is not

unning in the best of good luck just now. All through the Jamaica meeting the firm has been backing its horses, with poor suc-cess. There was an unsuccessful plunge on Andy Williams and Buttons in the Montague it is said. In order to recoup, the firm laid out a programme yesterday which looked promising on paper. Young Henry, whose previous race was so poor that he was passed up by the public, was heavily backed to win the first race. Redfern surprised the crowd by making the pace with him, instead of the usual waiting tactics. But Rob Roy nipped this trick in the bud. St. Bellane was the next betting proposition, and this time the stable took a big commission out of the ring, according to report. Lady Amelia was the third money bearer for the combination, but she was beaten in the run off for the Williamsburg Handicap. Dimple, the fourth good thing, burned up more wealth for the stable when she was left at the post in the fifth race, which served to wind up

P. J. Gorman, the Westerner, who put his ally Mary Gorman over the plate the other lay at 12 to 1, let loose another genuine good thing yesterday in Mary Glenn in the third race. This four-year-old daughter of Teu-ton-Thistle, opened at 100 to 1, but Gorman & Co. got their money down so quickly that the odds kept tumbling until the best price on offer was 20 to 1. When Mary Glenn came to the ring, where, it is said, they gathered is about $25,000 on the result. Wood, an inknown stable boy had the mount. F. incidentally, framed up anothe killing in the same race with Burning Glass. who was played from 20 to 1 to twelves and ran second. Midgley and his friends were sure that their borse could not have been beaten with a fair start. John J. Ryan's colors were carried by Mel-rose, a colt by The Pepper--Katie Bramble, in the second event. The "get-rich-quick" man put down a good wager at 6 to thought he had a chance to cash until St Bellane outgamed his colt in the run home.

Old Brigadier started in the first race with Shaw up, running in the names of Mrs. F. D. Weir. He got a bad break at the start and then showed nothing of his former speed.

John H. Shults, the well known trotting horse man, was at the track to see his Wools-Tammany, as usual, played Athlana in the man in the fifth with similar results.

receipt of 23 pounds by the scale from he Hampton Stable's three-year-old Wotan, the second horse.

Jookey Romanelli has secured a release from the contract he signed last year to ride or the Whitney stable and will go to Chicago to fill another engagement. Otto Wonderly, who rode H. T. Griffin's vesterday. He said that the colt was short of work, not having run since the Los Angeles Derby. Wonderly is loud in his praise of the ew Kansas City track.

Mary Glenn was run up to $1,500 and bought at that figure by Billy Dubois.

Goodwin's Official Turf Guide, No. 5, con taining the usual valuable information, has just been published.

ST. LOUIS AUTO TOUR. Presidents Whipple and White Are First and Second Entries for Big Run. Entry blanks for the big converging auto-St. Louis, which starts on July 25, were issued yesterday by the American Automobile Association. Entry blank No. 1 was at once filled out by Harlan W. Whipple, president of the A. A., and blank No. 2 was filled out by Windsor T. White, president of the National Association of Automobile Manufacturers. The filled blanks, with the $10 entry fee for each, were handed to C. H. Gillette, secretary of the tour committee, almost before the printer's ink was dry. President Whipple said he is certain that the tour will be a big one, with many hundreds in it.

CUPRUM'S OWNERS EXPELLED. Board of Review Gets at the Bottom of

Well Laid Binging Plan. The board of review of the National Trotting Association met at the Murray Hill Hotel yesterday and passed upon a long list of cases, but few of which were of interest to the general

Among the list of expulsions were the names of T. J. Thompson Jr. and Sanford W. Walker of Rochester, N. Y. These were the real owners of the brown gelding Cuprum. 2:1234, that was started last year as Selesh without a public record, and was not recognized until late in the season and then only when the owners had a falling out

The whole plan of campaign came out yesterday and showed one of the boldest and best laid plans for substituting one horse for another ever brought to the notice of the board. Cuprum was formerly owned by Nathan Straus and was well known in Speciway and matinée circles. Cuprum was bred by Marcus Daly of Montana and was got by Prodigal, 2:18. Selesh was also bred by the same breeder, was by the same sire and of Prodigal, 2:16. Selesh was also bred by the same breeder, was by the same sire and of the same age as Cuprum, and the two horses were of the same color and in a general way resembled each other. Both passed through the sale ring at Madison Square, iarden, but there the connection ends. What became of Selesh has never come to light, and the offenders might have continued to pass Cuprum, with his fast record, as Selesh, without any record, had they not fallen out between themselves.

Thompson and Sanford came to this city and bought Cuprum of John McGuire in February, 1963. When the horse reached Rochester he was given to Robert Bever, the trainer, as Selesh, an untried trotter. Bever campaigned the horse and visited many places in the vicinity of New York without the horse being recognized. At Saugus, Mass. Thompson complained to the judges that Bever was not trying to win and asked that he be put up behind the horse. This angered Bever and he gave the judges an inkling that started the investigation of the horse. Bever was suspended at that time, but the complicity of the owners had not then been established. This was done yesterday and the whole plot laid bare.

Among the applicants for reinstatemeat was Walter R. Cox, prominent in the Grand Circuit last year as the driver of Prince Orange, 20043, Major, 204 and a big string of good ones. Cox was suspended in December last for one year for his connection with the scandalous pacing race at Nashua, N. H., in July 1902. Cox and his then employer, Hamblett, one of the most prominent citizens of Nashua, escaped at the first hearing when the other parties to the fraud were punished. Evidence later implicated both the owner and trainer of Reed Patchen, 2:164, and both were suspended. Cox made an urgent appeal for clemency but it was denied.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS.

Janowski Leads Half a Point After Six Rounds of Play. CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., May 3.—Six rounds of the international chess masters' tourney, which was begun on April 25 in this city, are now completed, all the games having been concluded, and with the result that the Parisian, Janowski, is still leading the field, having only drawn one game and won the rest.

Marshall and Teichmann, however, are close on the heels of the leader, only half a point behind, while Lasker is in the fifth place, half a point behind Mieses, again half a point behind comes Pillsbury. The latter, however, excelled in the sixth round, latter, however, excelled in the sixth round, played to-day, by disposing of Champion Lasker in grand style. Everybody here seemed to be delighted with the result of that particular game, and in honor of the occasion the Hotel Rider hoisted the Stars and Stripes on the highest spot of the building.

The details of to-day's play: Showalter made rather short work of Delmar in a four kinghts game, which was very well played by Delmar at first. After 40 moves Delmar resigned. Marco beat Hodges finely in a Ruy Lopez after 26 moves.

Napier went down before Teichmann in a Queen's Gambit declined, in which Napier had an advantage at first, 37 moves. Fox beat Schlechter in a Queen's Gambit declined after 38 mvoes.

Pillsbury lay in wait for Lasker with a variation of the queen's gambit declined, which netted him a victory after 30 moves. Barry at last managed to score, namely half a point against Mieses, who really ought to have lost. It was a Sicilian defence, in which 47 moves were recorded. Tschigorin was altogether outplayed by Janowski in a giuocopiano, 43 moves. Showalter and Janowski agreed to call their adjourned game from the fifth round a draw.

AUTO BODIES WILL MERGE. Directors Meet and Declare the Plan Carried by Popular Vote.

meeting of the directors of the American Automobile Association was terday at which was canvassed the vote on the plan of merging that organization with the American Motor League to form one national body of automobilists. The vote on this question was made by the members by mail and fifteen days given for them to vote from the time of sending out the plan to them Notice was given when the question was submitted that those not voting would be recorded as being in favor of the plan. The polls closed last Saturday. The canvass showed 1,408 votes in favor of the ama lgamation as proposed and 138 opposed The remaindeng members, about a thousand by not voting went on record as affirmative In consequence of this the directors yesterday adopted the following:

Resolved. That in view of the large majority by which the plan of merger with the American Motor League has been carried, that this board declares said plan operative, subject to argeement with the American Motor League upon a satisfactory constitution and by laws.

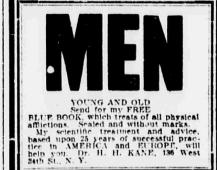

with the American Motor League upon a satisfactory constitution and by laws.

This action means that probably before the end of the summer there will be only one national body, and it will be known as the American Motor Association. There has been a joint committee of the two organizations at work on a constitution and by-laws, and it asked yesterday for a little more time and the directors adjourned until May 18, when the new constitution will be submitted. The committee preparing the new articles are S. M. Butler and S. H. Valentine of the A. A. A. and I. B. Potter and Frank Egan of the A. M. L.

The full result of the vote of the A. M. L. was not given in detail, but it was overwhelmingly in favor of the merger plan. About ten days ago the count showed that only two out of 700 A. M. L. members had voted in the negative.

Shakeup for Cornell Crews.

ITHACA, May 3.—Courtney kept his word and to-day gave to the Cornell crews the most severe shaking up of the season. Snyder was taken from the 'varsity four and placed was taken from the varsity lour and placed at No. 2 in the eight, and Ballinger took Wadsworth's seat at No. 4. The crack sophomore boat was broken up for the first time in its existence. After having rowed together two years Courtney has shifted some of them, and they may be out for good. Lee was substituted by Fischer in the bow seat, Johnson by Boesch at No. 3, and Rankin steered in the place of Slocum.
